

Mariano Occhionero

Asset Management Responsible

- 2021, Asset Management Responsible in AEER Srl
- 2012 – 2021, Nordex Italia - Local Operations
Manager
- 2009 – 2012, Nordex Italia - Field Operations
Manager
- 2008 – 2009, Nordex Italia - Site Supervisor
- 2005 – 2008, Protos S.p.A. - Project Engineer
- 2004 – 2005, Studio Brogini - Project Engineer

Education

- 2004 – Master’s Degree in Civil Engineering at “Università degli studi di Roma 3”. Thesis work carried out at “Technische Fachhochschule Berlin”.
2001 – ERASMUS exchange student program attended at “Universidad de Cantabria”, Santander (Spain).
- 1997 – Scientific high school degree at “Liceo Scientifico A. Romita” of Campobasso.

Professional Experience

Currently working at AEER since March 2021 as Project Manager. Responsible of management of renewable assets of the company concerning performance, coordination of suppliers, maintenance plans, consultants. Technical, operational, and commercial coordination according to company needs. Support to Managing Director in defining corporate strategies, drafting of periodic performance and economic-financial reports, relations with public administrations, assistance in defining investment.

Previously employed in Nordex as Local Operations Manager for Italy, Greece (up to May 2020) and Croatia (from 2018). Responsible for Service activity related to a fleet of more than 150 Wind Turbines for an overall production capacity of 500 MW. Responsible to manage a Service technician team of more than 20 persons. In Charge for setting up Nordex service structure in Croatia. Previously, from 2005 to 2008 working with Protos S.p.A. as Project Engineer with the task of managing, coordinating and executing inspections of construction plants of civil works in order to analyze and minimize the risks undertaken by insurance companies related to the so called “decennale postuma” policies.